RE: Request for Additional Information dated April 15, 2010

Dear Mr. Holly,

I have listed the responses to your inquiry in order below:

1. An amendment has been filed to satisfy the requirement of matching the beginning Column A and Column B figures from the previous report to the year-end report.
2. An amendment has been filed to satisfy the requirement of matching the beginning cash balance from the previous report to the year-end report.
3. Incorrectly aggregated entries have been corrected.
4. The in-kind contribution reported on Schedule A now has a corresponding disbursement in Schedule B.
5. During the course of the initial amendment of the YE 2009 report, a number of inadvertent data entry errors were discovered. These included duplicate entries of receipts made to the Committee. The duplicates discovered were removed, and this reduced the amount of receipts. Additional duplicate entries were discovered and were removed as part of this second amendment to the report.
6. During the course of initial amendment of the YE 2009 report, a number of inadvertent data entry errors were discovered. These included duplicate entries of disbursements made by the Committee. The duplicates discovered were removed, and this reduced the amount of disbursements. Additional duplicate entries were discovered and were removed as part of this second amendment to the report.
